

Job Opportunity
Coordinator
Three Steps Forward for Young Men

The Rutland Region Workforce Investment Board (RRWIB) is accepting applications for Coordinator from candidates with prior experience and proven success working with teenagers and young adults, understanding of the demands of various work settings, excellent coaching/teaching skills, superb organizational and communication skills, and the ability to work with school, agency and business partners to further develop and lead a program.

Candidates will work with young adults who have not yet received high school diplomas to reengage them in education and training opportunities leading to a path of economic independence and well-being.

A full job description is available at: www.rrwib.org

Interested candidates should apply at www.rrwib.org/contact. Please download the application and mail it, your resume, and a cover letter no later than November 12, 2018 to PO Box 6015 Rutland, VT 05702
Attention: Hiring Manager

You may also email us your filled-out application, resume, and cover letter: RutlandRegionWIB@gmail.com